

COCAcon Speaker Info

Presenting and networking at COCAcon helps improve the education and knowledge of pediatric oncology professionals so they can better provide a safe, fun and life-changing experience for cancer patient campers and their families.

Logistics

COCAcon 2026 will be held in Frisco, Texas at the Hyatt Regency Frisco-Dallas from November 12-14th.

Link to Reserve Hotel Room

COCAcon Info

COCAcon is a 3-day conference packed with 60-65 educational sessions, insightful professional speakers, and networking events featuring sponsors and exhibitors.

More Information

Common Tracks

Common Session Tracks Include:

- Staff Development
- Child Development
- Medical Contact Hours
- Operations/Leadership
- Programming
- Fundraising
- COCAcademy

Common Formats

Common Session Formats Include:

- Roundtable
- Presentation with Q&A
- Workshop
- Panel Discussion

Attendee Audience

COCAcon is attended by over 250 camp professionals representing over 70 COCA Member Camps. Our attendees include executives, board members, medical professionals, directors, fundraisers, social media managers, counselors, and volunteers.

Speaker Benefit

Outside Professionals: Exposure to pediatric oncology camps and camp professionals, face-to-face networking increases likelihood of future partnerships.

COCA Professionals: Opportunity to meet more COCA Members and network, share, workshop, and learn from one another.

COCAcon 2026 Speaker Form

Callie@cocai.org

Cocacamps.org

Coca.thinkific.com

@cocacamps